Vladimir Horowitz: The Great Comeback 15-CD Set
After taking a twelve-year hiatus during the 1950s and early 1960s, Vladimir Horowitz returned to the concert stage on Sunday, May 8, 1965. The performance was one of New York City’s most exciting musical events. When the pianist stepped onto the stage, he was greeted with a standing ovation before he played the first note. This release includes that GRAMMY Award winning performance, as well as rehearsals, additional recitals, and other unreleased recordings.

15CD# SNYC 19075353332 $92.98

Ivo Pogorelich: Piano Sonatas
Legendary Croatian pianist Ivo Pogorelich celebrated both his 60th birthday and the 40th anniversary of the launch of his career as the climax of his hugely successful 2019/2020 season. This release is his first new album since 1998, and features two sonatas by Beethoven as well as Rachmaninoff’s Second Piano Sonata.

CD# SBM# 19075956602 $14.98

Liszt: Hungarian Rhapsodies 2-CD Set
If you don’t yet own a set of Liszt’s fiery masterpieces, you are wise to wait. Brazilian pianist Roberto Szidon perfectly captures their searing majesty and stamping cadences. Jim Svejda, host of public radio’s “The Record Shelf” calls them “among the most exciting performances heard in a generation...no more satisfying interpretation of the entire cycle has ever appeared.”

2CD# DGG 4503034 $19.98

Bruckner: Symph. Nos. 6 & 9 / Wagner: Parsifal Prelude 2-CD Set
The newest release in the Gewandhausorchester Bruckner series lead by Andris Nelsons features his Symphonies Nos. 6 and 9, as well as Wagner’s “Siegfried Idyl” and Parsifal Prelude. All of the installments in this series have been praised by audiences. Nelsons’ interpretation is at once sensitive and energetic, thoughtful and exciting.

2CD# DGG B003010402 $26.95

Rachmaninoff: Rhapsody / Poulenc: Organ Concerto
This release features American organist Cameron Carpenter in his first orchestral recording as well as his first live-concert recording. An original version of Rachmaninoff’s Rhapsody on a Theme of Paganini recorded live at Berlin’s Konzerthaus is paired with Poulenc’s popular Concerto for Organ Strings and Timpani. These pieces brilliantly showcase Carpenter’s artistry.

CD# SBM# 88985938082 $14.98

Evgeny Kissin & Emerson String Quartet: New York Concert 2-CD Set
This beautifully conceived album is a joy to listen to! Evgeny Kissin and the Emerson String Quartet each bring unique energy to the works they perform, and this program is no different. Featuring chamber works by Mozart, Faure, and Dvorak, this is a marvel for chamber music lovers. As a special added bonus, a Shostakovich quintet is included as an encore.

2CD# DGG B002992102 $29.98

Mahler: Symphony No. 1 SACD
The shimmering string harmonics at the opening of Gustav Mahler’s First Symphony bring to mind the beginning of spring, signaling new life being ushered in. This symphonic “world-in-microcosm” is brought to life by the Minnesota Orchestra and Osmo Vänskä on the fourth installment in this series.

CD# BIS 2346 $21.98

Love? Homage to Clara Schumann
Pianist Yaara Tal presents this new release in celebration of the 200th birthday of Clara Schumann. Yaara has chosen works by Clara, as well as works inspired by or dedicated to Clara by Theodor Kirchner, Johannes Brahms, and Julie von Webenau. Yaara performs with some of her most talented musician friends, including Andreas Groethuysen and tenor Julian Pargarden.

CD# SBM# 19075963082 $16.98

Hilary Hahn Plays Bach: Violin Sonatas Nos. 1 & 2
20 years after her debut recording, Hilary Hahn returns to solo Bach with this eagerly-anticipated release. This album completes Hilary’s solo Bach recording cycle and features the Sonatas Nos. 1 & 2 as well as Partita No. 1. Hilary writes: “Bach is, for me, the touchstone that keeps my playing honest... one can’t fake things in Bach, and if one gets all of them to work, the music sings in the most wonderful way.”

CD# DEC B002883502 $18.98

Schumann: Symphony No. 1
The two orchestral works on this release come from two important romantic composers – Franz Schubert and Robert Schumann – who, with these songs, stretched their symphonic wings for the first time. Schumann’s Symphony No. 1 was an instant hit for the 31-year-old composer, and Schubert’s Symphony No. 3 was the first symphony in which 18-year-old Schubert did not use stylistic influences from his predecessors.

CD# BRK 900176 $16.98

Finlandia (Ormandy)
Eugene Ormandy leads the Philadelphia Orchestra in these performances of works of Edward Grieg, Hugo Alfvén and Jean Sibelius. In this superb compilation, you’ll enjoy one of the best versions of “Finlandia” available, as well as the magnificent “Peer Gynt Suite No. 1.” You’ll also hear selections from Sibelius’ “The Swan of Tuonela,” “En Saga,” and “Valse triste,” as well as Alfvén’s “Swedish Rhapsody No. 1.”

CD# SBM# 88697698752 $14.98

Brahms: The Complete Songs, Vol. 8
Brahms provides the ideal showcase for soprano Harriet Burns’s voice. On this eighth volume in her journey through the vocal works of the legendary composer, she presents 26 tracks taken from the whole of Brahms’s career, including “Spanisches Lied, Op. 6 No. 1”, “Sechs Gesänge Op. 7,” and many more. She is joined by tenor Robin Tritschler and pianist Graham Johnson.

CD# HYP 33128 $19.98

Bruckner: Complete Piano Music
While some of Bruckner’s piano music was composed early on in his career, before his career took off in his forties after several personal setbacks, the majority of his piano output comes from the early 1860s, around the same time as his first (unhumbled) symphony. This album from Francesco Pasqualotto explores all of Bruckner’s piano output, from a young man’s first writings to a seasoned and successful composer’s masterworks.

CD# BLC 95619 $11.98

British Tone Poems, Vol. 2
Chandos presents the eagerly anticipated second volume of Rumon Gamba’s fascinating survey of lesser-known British musical gems. This 8-track edition features works from composers including Sir Arthur Bliss,Patrick Hadley, Ralph Vaughan Williams, and more. This album features two world premiere recordings.

CD# CHA 10981 $17.98

Joshua Bell: Bruch – Scottish Fantasy
GRAMMY Award-winning violinist Joshua Bell performs and directs the Academy of St Martin in the Fields on this release, where he records the virtuoso “Scottish Fantasy” as well as Bruch’s “Violin Concerto No. 1 in G Minor, Op. 26.” The Concerto holds a special place in Bell’s heart, as he first recorded the work 30 years ago with the Academy of St Martin in the Fields.

CD# SNYC 19075842002 $14.98

Renaissance Choral Masterworks
The Renaissance era of the 16th and 17th centuries encompasses some of the most magnificent choral music ever written. This was a time when composers were attached to royal chapels and cathedrals, and dedicated their art to the service of God, creating musical masterworks that would complement and reflect the glory of the architecture which contained them.

CD# BLC 95662 $16.98

Rachmaninov: Complete Piano Concertos 3-CD Set
If you’ve seen the film Brief Encounter, you know the sensual, romantic power of Rachmaninov’s Piano Concerto No. 2. This bountiful collection includes the youthful first, the lyrical “Rhapsody on a Theme of Paganini” and more; all expertly performed by pianist Vladimir Ashkenazy along with the London Symphony Orchestra conducted by Andre Previn.

3CD# DEC 4732512 $27.98
CHORAL / VOCALS

The Choral Collection 30-CD Set
Covers a vast array of repertoire, this essential collection presents the greatest choral masterpieces in critically acclaimed performances. From the sacred music of the Medieval era, and the refinement of the Renaissance and Baroque, to the Romantic worlds of Schumann, Brahms and Dvorak, and the inspired beauty of works by Eric Whitacre and John Rutter, this collection is a fantastic celebration of the art of choral singing.

30CD# NXS 8503298 $57.98

Jonas Kaufmann: Wein
Jonas Kaufmann returns to disc with this new album, Wein. The release is an homage to Vienna and the operetta style, and features works from Strauss, Stolz, Kreutzer, Leopoldi, and Kreisler. This is Kaufmann’s ninth solo album with Sony Classical. His previous albums, which include an Italian album, a Puccini album, and a Verdi album, were all met with high acclaim, and this new release is sure to attain the same accolades!

CD# SNY 959040 $16.98

The Queen’s Six: The Last Rose of Summer
Based at Windsor Castle, the members of the Queen’s Six make up half of the Lay Clerks at St. George’s Chapel. The group sings regularly for the royal family at private and state occasions, and so this privilege demands the highest standards of musicality. The group has a distinct blend, largely due to their closeness in singing daily within the walls. This 22-track release features popular British folk songs.

CD# TANT 0119 $16.98

Q’d Up: Zagranitsa – Mystical Wonderland
This album features music inspired by and performed during a concert tour that Q’d Up and several BYU students made to five Russian cities during the fall of 2017. Q’d Up has a unique and infectious sound that is a product of the personalities of the players, the arrangements and compositions of Steve Lindeman, Jay Lawrence and Kelly Eisenhour, and the blend of a wide variety of sounds and styles stemming from the impressive versatility of each of the group members.

CD# TANT 0119 $16.98

Gregory Hutter: Secular Choral Music
The exciting, genre-defying American composer Gregory Hutter wrote this sequence of choral music between 2009 and 2014 — his intention being economic, direct, and tuneful music. The settings range from the English Renaissance to American poems of the early 20th century; from Shakespeare to Carl Sandburg and Sara Teasdale. Hutter approaches the texts with lyricism and fluidity, attentive to the poetry’s moments of melancholy, beauty or bucolic energy.

CD# NXS 8559868 $13.98

Brigitte Fassbaender Sings Schubert, Loewe, Schumann 11-CD Set
Before her retirement in 1995, Brigitte Fassbaender was one of the world’s most widely known Lied and opera singers. This 11-disc set from Deutsche Grammophon is released to honor her contribution to vocal music in honor of her 80th birthday. Not only are seven of her albums from DG and Decca included, but four new compositions are featured which display her individuality and artistic depth.

11CD# DGG 4839131 $59.98

The Ave Maria Album
If you love the sound of angelic voices, it doesn’t get any better than this. The incomparable vocals of Leonore Price, Enrico Caruso, John McCormack, Plácido Domingo, Mario Lanza, and more perform 16 variations of the beautiful aria “Ave Maria.” These quality interpretations of the song (written by Schubert, Verdi, Brahms, Bach-Gounod, and Cherubini), are sure to delight and make your spirits soar.

CD# RCA 63260 $9.98

Renee Fleming: Lieder
One doesn’t need to be an opera or classical singing fan to know the name Renee Fleming. She has built for herself a career and a reputation that transcends genres and crosses borders. On this release, the four-time Grammy winner showcases Lieder from Brahms, Schumann, and Mahler, including an outstanding performance of Mahler’s Rückert Lieder alongside Christian Thielemann and the Munich Philharmonic.

CD# DEC B003049202 $20.98

Mozart: Don Giovanni 2-CD Set
A feast for the eyes and a celebration for the ear! Mozart’s Don Giovanni is presented on this 2-CD set in a remarkable staging by the legendary Franco Zeffirelli. Beautiful costumes by Maurizio Millottis and lights by Paolo Mazzon round out the spectacle. Recorded live at the Arena di Verona, this production features Carlos Alvarez in the title role, alongside Irina Lungu and Maria Jose Siti.

2CD# CME 751008 $44.98

Opera Gold 6-CD Set
Decca has outdone themselves! On this deluxe 6-disc set, the famous opera label has gathered a premium collection of 100 of the most beautiful opera tracks of all time. Tracks include selections from Verdi’s Il Trovatore, Mozart’s Le Nozze di Figaro, Puccini’s Turandot, and many more sung by artists like Luciano Pavarotti, Dame Joan Sutherland, Renata Tebaldi, and many more.

6CD# DEC B00530562 $22.98

Luciano Pavarotti: Complete Opera Recordings 101-CD Set
2017 marked the tenth anniversary of the death of modern opera legend Luciano Pavarotti. To mark this occasion, Decca assembled this monumental collection that presents every role he ever performed and recorded. With this correctly made every single role from his debut recording of La Bohème in 1961 until his death is included. 101 CDs in all!

101CD# DEC 4832417 $359.98

The #1 Opera Album 2-CD Set
With a track listing that reads like a greatest hits record, The #1 Opera Album is exactly what you’d expect it to be. Here are 28 beautiful arias by legendary artists like Renee Fleming, Luciano Pavarotti, Plácido Domingo, Joan Sutherland, and Andrea Bocelli from classic operas such as Bizet’s Carmen, Puccini’s La Bohème, Verdi’s Rigoletto, Rossini’s Barber of Seville, Wagner’s Der Walküre, Mozart’s Don Giovanni, and much more.

2CD# DEC 28945722 $17.98

The #1 Opera Album II 2-CD Set
2CD# DEC B000950602 $17.98

Puccini: Le Villi DVD
Le Villi, the two act opera-ballet first staged at the Teatro Dal Verme in Milan in 1884, marked Giacomo Puccini’s debut into the world of opera. This production is from the Teatro del Maggio Musicale Fiorentino, and the live performances exceeded exceedingly good reviews. Don’t miss the opportunity to see opera genius’s first foray into the genre!

DVD# DYN 37840 $28.98

Arena di Verona Collection Vol. 1 4-DVD Set
This 3- opera, 4-DVD set showcases three wonderful productions seen at the prestigious Arena di Verona: Puccini’s Turandot, Gounod’s Romeo Juliette, and Verdi’s La Traviata. This release was performed for the 88th season of the Arena di Verona Festival to pay tribute to Italian stage director Franco Zeffirelli. The Romeo and Juliette production presented here is the first time the work has been performed at the arena since 1977. The Aida celebrates the bicentennial of Verdi’s birth.

4DVD# BAC 521 $35.98

Madama Butterfly DVD
This festival-premiere Madama Butterfly is a revival from the 2016 tour. Digs Busuioc is perfectly accompanied by the London Philharmonic Orchestra in this staging by Arendse Miskimmon. The Arts Desk wrote of Busuioc’s Cio-Cio-San, “sustained dramatic intensity and vocal brilliance... brings direction and shape to the Miskimmon concept.”

DVD# BOA 1167D $28.98

Salome DVD
Nothing short of a sensation, this production of Richard Strauss’s opera at the Salzburg Festival featured Asmik Grigorian in the title role. This will launch her career into international stardom, going on to win the International Opera Award as best singer. The Financial Times wrote: “Here is a Salome to end all Salomes... In total, it is stunning...”

DVD# UNTL 801508 $29.98

BluRay# UNTL 001704 $39.98

Wagner: Siegfried 4-CD Set
One of the most remarkable things in all of music is Wagner’s Der Ring des Nibelungen, an epic four-opera series that boasts Seeresses and villains, incredible orchestration, and extraordinary vocal challenges. The latest installment in this recording cycle from Naxos, Siegfried features some of the finest moments in all of Wagner’s writing, and is sure to leave listeners in awe.
